Contract for an 4-hours-learning-package-with-bonus between Florian and <firstname>

Hello <firstname>, below I set out my terms for the 4-hours-learning-package-with-bonus.

1. Service and price

The package will cost you <price>. The money must be paid in advance. In return, we prepare with four 60-minute tutoring sessions for the <subject> exam at <university or school> on <date>.

2. Refund

I will refund 6 euros per lesson only in the following case: You show me pictures of the corrected exam with the goal not reached (<goal>) from the exam inspection.

In particular, the money is due and will not be refunded if:

- you do not write the exam for any reason (illness, etc.);
- you write the exam, do not reach your goal (<goal>) and then cannot provide pictures from the inspection;
- the date, the name or the school/college/university are not visible on the pictures of the corrected exam with the goal not reached, so that it could be a different exam;
- the pictures from the inspection do not show that you tried to solve the assignments (that is, it is not possible to drag yourself to the exam while ill, only write your name on it and then send pictures of blank pages).

3. Cancellations and non-appearance

Attention: appointments cannot be rescheduled. In the case of a cancellation of an appointment – regardless of how early it is made –, technical problems (e. g. an unstable internet connection lasting more than ten minutes or the inability to use Teams or Zoom) or a delay of more than ten minutes on your part, the full fee of 30 euro for the lesson is due. In these cases I will not wait any longer – regardless of how long the appointment was booked for.

In the event of a short-term cancellation or a technical failure on my part, you will either receive a prompt replacement appointment or your money back.

4. Acceptance of the contract

By transferring the money and returning this document with your signature, you accept these terms. If I also accept the contract, I will return it to you signed. Otherwise I decline the contract by transferring the money back.

Kind regards

Florian Ingerl
